

SOHO POP ART VERNISAGE SUCCESS FOR GERMAN ARTIST

MICHEL FRIESS

The artsy fartsy folks, socialites, pretty young things and business titans came out in droves to meet German's answer to Andy Warhol, pop artist, Michel Friess. The artist agents' and owners of Pop Art Gallery, Ralph & Stephan Barlog also flew in from Germany for the celebration. The event was hosted by Paul Anis, owner of Studio Anise in Soho, home to the Rolf Benz U.S. Flagship Store and Freistl. Studio Anise also presents a carefully curated selection from other leading contemporary high-end furniture manufacturers. Plenty of Forever Young wine was poured to keep spirits flowing while a lively jazz band played in the background. The "German Pop Art Meets New York" exhibition will be up through May 2018 and pieces can be shipped worldwide.

SPONSORS FOR THE EVENT:

RESIDENT

ROLF BENZ

FØREVER YØUNG WINE